

京都大学
KYOTO UNIVERSITY

清华大学
Tsinghua University

2018 K.U. x T.U. Student Workshop on Future Leaders

Poverty, Aging society, Energy, Innovation, Climate change, Natural disasters, AI, ... We are facing a lot of severe and global issues. For the future of our human kind, we must study these issues together and act today. Being a student of Kyoto University (K.U.) or Tsinghua University (T.U.), one has more possibility and responsibility to challenge these issues, that is, to act as a future leader.

This workshop will provide an opportunity for about twenty graduate students from K.U. and T.U. to discuss global issues we are facing and how we can act to solve these issues, especially for the East Asia area.

Program

Date/Time: August 24 (Friday), 2018, from 10am to 12am.

Venue: Shishu-Kan Hall (Room 001), Higashiichijo-Kan, Kyoto University

Participants: about 20 students from T.U. and K.U. and other guests

Special guests:

- Dr. Kaoru Takara, Professor, Dean of GSAIS (Shishu-Kan)
- Dr. Shutaro Takeda, Assistant Professor, GSAIS (Shishu-Kan)

Program:

1. Opening address (Dr. Liang Zhao, 5 min)
2. Invited talk: Global issues, sustainability and leadership program at K.U. , by Dr. Kaoru Takara, Dean of GSAIS (30 min)
3. Group photo (10 min)
4. A short introduction to Asian Future Leaders Scholarship Program at K.U.,
by Dr. Liang Zhao (10 min)
5. Group discussion on issues, sustainability and leadership (4 groups, 25 min)
6. Presentation and discussion (10 min for each group, 40 min in total)
7. Summary and closing remark (10 min)

A summary booklet is planned to publish online after the workshop.